

Four cubed (Borg Cube, get it?) equals Communiqué 64. Ok it doesn't make a lot of sense, but the graphic is very cool. (Thanks to Lourdes Underwood for the beautiful artwork.)

Communiqué 64 is another special situation. Near the end of the Rob Lerman term as Commander STARFLEET, Dwaine Gleason was supposed to have masters for another issue ready to go. However, Dwaine either did not finish them, or they were lost in the transition when he was promoted to Vice-Commander, Starfleet (sadly no-one is for certain which.) Thus we had #62 & #63 that Dwaine did, the missing #64; #65, that Robbie Lewis did: the eventual skipping of #66, and then #67 done by Doug Glenn. Resistance is futile, Assimilation into the Communiqué Collective is inevitable.
